

Sales Enablement That
Wins Sellers and Buyers

Allego Content Management

DELIVER CONTENT SELLERS NEED TO DELIGHT
BUYERS WITH EXPERIENCES THEY LOVE

Challenge: Finding the Right Content

Too often, sellers are burdened by mountains of “just-in-case” content that is difficult to sift through and pinpoint what’s needed to sell.

Without context surrounding how to best use content, reps feel more comfortable sticking to dated collateral they’re comfortable with. It’s no surprise 70% of generic enablement content is never used by sellers*.

Solution: Allego Sales Content Management

Allego Content Management helps marketers and enablement teams organize, manage, distribute, and activate content with relevant context to drive seller adoption.

With Allego, you’ll get instant feedback from sellers to co-create the most impactful content. You can finally understand what’s working in the field to help sellers win deals with confidence.

How We Help

MANAGE & ACTIVATE CONTENT

Make content accessible to sellers in moments they need it most

DELIVER MODERN BUYER EXPERIENCES

Invite buyers to digital sales rooms featuring curated content & chat

PROVE CONTENT IMPACT

Understand how content and messaging drives revenue

What Makes Us Unique?

Sellers need three content types to be successful: formal marketing content, learning content, and agile content. Agile content is crowdsourced based on real experiences in the field. With Allego, you’ll not only organize your content, but also empower reps with how to use content to win over buyers.
